TRANSFER OF CORPORATE ACTIONS FROM ASP TO ASPRS

WHEREAS the American Society for Photogrammetry (ASP) was previously incorporated in the District of Columbia; and

WHEREAS ASP subsequently relocated to the Commonwealth of Virginia; and

WHEREAS the membership subsequently approved a procedure whereby ASP was dissolved and a new corporation, the American Society for Photogrammetry and Remote Sensing (ASPRS) was incorporated in Virginia; and

WHEREAS the ASPRS Board of Directors desires to continue in effect the actions, policies, and general corporate purposes of the original ASP in the new ASPRS:

IT IS HEREBY RESOLVED that all corporate action previously effected by ASP including, but not limited to, personnel policies, the adoption of policies regarding joint convention activities, the Code of Professional Ethics governing photogrammetric and remote sensing activities, and the procedures for the Certified Photogrammetrist Program, are here adopted as continuing in full force and effect as if said corporate actions had been originally adopted by the Board of Directors of the ASPRS

Adopted by ASPRS Board of Directors, April 7, 1989

BYLAWS OF THE
AMERICAN SOCIETY FOR PHOTOGRAMMETRY AND REMOTE SENSING

ARTICLE I. NAME AND OFFICE

Section 1. Name and Definition

The name of the Organization shall be the American Society for Photogrammetry and Remote Sensing, (ASPRS), hereinafter in these Bylaws called the Society. Photogrammetry and Remote Sensing is the art, science and technology of obtaining reliable information about physical objects and the environment, through the process of recording, measuring and interpreting imagery and digital representations of energy patterns derived from non-contact sensor systems.

Section 2. Office Location

The principal office of the Society shall be in the Washington, D.C. metropolitan area. The Society may have such other offices as may from time to time be designated by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE II. OBJECTIVES

Section 1. Objectives of the Society

- a. To advance scientific knowledge in the various disciplines of photogrammetry and remote sensing including but not limited to, aerial surveying and mapping, photo interpretation, spatial information management, and the related sciences in furtherance of the public welfare and in the interests of those who practice in the profession and those who use its services and products.
- b. To encourage public programs relating to photogrammetric and remote sensing endeavors such as mapping, charting, cadastral surveying, and resource and environmental surveys and studies, working with governmental and private organizations in furthering such programs.
- c. To foster understanding and cooperation and to expedite the exchange of knowledge and ideas among the members of the Society and with those of other national and international organizations with similar or related interests.
- d. To serve the membership and the public as a central source of information, reference, and consultation on the disciplines represented in the Society.
- e. To contribute to the education of the general public about the nature of, and benefits to be realized from, the products and services provided by the profession.
- f. To further the national and international recognition and understanding of the profession and its various disciplines.
- g. To establish and maintain a code of ethics for the profession.
- h. To establish and apply standards for competence and performance for the various disciplines represented in the Society as appropriate to the welfare of the general public
- i. To hold meetings for the exchange of scientific and technical information and for the exhibit of products and services.
- j. To encourage. publish and distribute books, periodicals, treatises and other scholarly and practical works applicable to the disciplines in the Society.
- k. To encourage and support education programs essential to the development and maintenance of the profession.
- l. To recognize and honor the leaders of the profession.
- m. To do and perform any lawful act and service to further the growth and recognition of the profession.

ARTICLE III. MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. Classes of Membership

Section 2. Member

A Member is an individual involved in the sciences and disciplines set forth in the objectives of the Society and shall be entitled to all rights and privileges of the Society, including the right to vote and hold office and the privilege of receiving a subscription to the Society's official journal. An applicant for admission as a Member shall file with the Executive Director a signed statement of concern for and involvement in the objectives of the Society by completing an application form prescribed by the Board of Directors. Completion of the form and payment of the required dues shall constitute fulfillment of admission requirements.

Section 3. Emeritus Member

An Emeritus Member is an individual who has been a member in good standing for 25 consecutive years and who has reached the age of 65, or for 35 consecutive years and has reached the age of 60. The Emeritus Member shall be relieved of any further payment of dues and shall be entitled to all rights and privileges of the Society, including the right to vote and hold office and the privilege of receiving a subscription to the Society's official journal.

Section 4. Honorary Member

An Honorary Member shall be an individual who has rendered distinguished service to the Society and/or who has attained distinction in photogrammetry, remote sensing or the related sciences, deserving of recognition by the Society; and shall be elected for life. The total number of Honorary Members, however, shall not exceed twenty-five at any given time and no more than two shall be elected in any year. Honorary Members shall be entitled to all the privileges of the Society without payment of dues, but they shall not have the right to vote or hold office therein except when they have been elected from the Member or Emeritus Member classification. Honorary Membership is not applied for but shall be conferred upon selected individuals by a two-thirds vote of all members of the Board of Directors present and voting by secret ballot at a duly advertised meeting, or by mail ballot. Appropriate background information shall be furnished to each member of the Board of Directors.

Section 5. Fellow Member

A Fellow Member shall be an individual who is an active member of the Society and has performed exceptional service in advancing the science and use of the mapping sciences. Fellow Member status is awarded for professional excellence and for service to the Society. Nominees must have made outstanding contributions in a recognized Society specialization whether in practice, research, development, administration, or education in the mapping sciences. Nominees must be active members of the Society at the time of their nomination and must have been active members for the last ten consecutive years. Candidates are nominated by any active member of the Society, except members of the ASPRS Board of Directors, recommended to the Fellows Committee, which is a sub-committee of the Awards Committee, and elected by the ASPRS Board of Directors. Up to 0.3 percent of the Society's active members may be elected as Fellows in any one year. Members of the ASPRS Board of Directors are ineligible for election.

Section 6. Affiliate Member

An Affiliate Member is an individual with an interest in the objectives of the Society but not directly involved in its disciplines and shall be entitled to all rights and privileges of the Society except for the right to vote and to hold office. An applicant for admission as Affiliate Member shall file with the Executive Director a signed statement of interest in the Society by completing an application form prescribed by the Board of Directors. Completion of the form and payment of the required dues shall constitute fulfillment of admission requirements.

Section 7. Student Member

A Student Member shall be working towards a degree at a university or college. Certification of student status (examples may include copies of student identification or current registration, faculty or sponsor signature, etc) is required for each year of student membership. A person is not eligible for student membership if he/she has previously held Member or Associate Member status. A Student Member shall be entitled to all rights and privileges of the Society, except for the right to vote or to hold office therein.

Section 8. Associate Member

An Associate Member shall not yet have reached the age of 35; shall pay dues that are approximately two-thirds of the full member dues; shall be eligible for this membership for a period of no more than five consecutive years; and may not revert to Student Member status. A person is not eligible for Associate Member status if he/she has previously held Member status. Associate Members shall be entitled to the same rights and privileges of the Society as a Member.

Section 9. Sustaining Member

A Sustaining Member shall be an individual or organization with an interest in the objectives of the Society and wishing to provide financial support to the work of the Society. Such members shall be entitled to all the privileges of the Society except that they shall not have the right to vote or hold office therein, unless, they are voting members. An applicant for admission as a Sustaining Member shall file a statement with the Executive Director of the applicant's interest in the objectives of the Society and intent to financially assist the Society. Such application shall be reviewed and approved by the Executive Director and reported to the Board of Directors at its next meeting.

Section 10. Inactive Member

An Inactive Member is an individual who has been removed from the membership rolls due to non-payment of required dues and who has not resigned from the Society. An Inactive Member shall not be entitled to the rights and privileges of the Society until such time as compensation is made for the unpaid dues.

Section 11. Membership Termination

Membership may be terminated in any of the following ways:

- a. Any member desiring to resign from the Society shall submit their resignation in writing to the Executive Director prior to the end of the calendar year for which dues have already been paid.
- b. Any member not having resigned in writing and not having paid the required dues shall be considered to be delinquent and will be so notified. Delivery of the journal shall be discontinued after one and if dues are not paid within three months the member will be reclassified to Inactive Member.
- c. Any member may be separated for cause by a two-thirds vote of the Board of Directors, provided that the member shall be given full opportunity for defense to the Board before such action is taken. Any member so separated may apply for reinstatement after one year by satisfactorily demonstrating the removal of the cause and paying any indebtedness to the Society. Such reinstatement shall require a two-thirds vote of members of the Board of Directors present and voting.

ARTICLE IV. OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS

Section 1. Elective Officers

The Elective Officers of the Society shall be President, President-Elect, Vice President and Immediate Past President.

Section 2. President

The President shall be the principal elective officer of the Society, shall preside at Annual and Special Meetings of the Society, of meetings of the Board of Directors and of the Executive Committee and shall be a member ex officio, with right to vote, of all Society committees except the Nominating Committee.

The President shall provide guidance for promoting the welfare and effectiveness of the Society, and shall perform such other duties as are necessarily incident to the office of President or as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors.

Section 3. President-Elect

The President-Elect shall perform as necessary the duties of the President in the event of disability or other absence of the President, shall oversee the activities of the Technical Divisions and Sustaining Members and shall have such other duties as the President or the Board of Directors may assign.

Section 4. Vice President

The Vice President shall chair meetings of the Region Presidents and Directors, oversee the Treasurer's activity and have such other duties as the President or the Board of Directors may assign, including those of the President-Elect in the event of disability of that officer.

Section 5. Immediate Past President

The Immediate Past President shall chair the Nominating Committee, provide the Incoming Board Members Orientation, be the Society's ISPRS Liaison, and serve as an advisor to the President.

Section 6. Directors

The Directors shall be the National Directors elected by each Region of the Society, the Director of each of the Divisions of the Society, and the Chair of the Sustaining Members Council.

Section 7. Appointed Officers

The Executive Director, the Secretary, and the Treasurer shall be appointed by the President upon the recommendation of the Executive Committee and with the consent of the Board of Directors. The Executive Director shall be responsible to the Board of Directors, through the President for the administration and management of the Society, including employing and directing the Headquarters staff, and shall have such other duties as prescribed by the Board of Directors.

Section 8. Board of Directors

The Board of Directors shall consist of the Elective Officers, the Directors, and the Chair of the Sustaining Members Council. The appointed officers shall be ex-officio members without voting rights.

Section 9. Nominating and Election Procedures

a. Elective Officers

- (1) Nominations for the ELECTIVE OFFICERS of the Society shall be made by the Nominating Committee consisting of the five most recent and available Past Presidents of the Society, and chaired by the Immediate Past President.
- (2) The office of President shall be filled by automatic succession of the President-Elect, who shall normally succeed to office from the office of Vice President. The Vice President is elected by a plurality of the voting membership at large from a choice of two or more nominees on the ballot.
- (3) The Nominating Committee shall nominate candidates for the office of Vice President on or before a date that is twenty weeks prior to the date of the Annual Meeting. Nominee selections will normally rotate annually among members representing government, industry, and academia. An announcement of the nominations shall be made in a Society publication received by the members eighteen weeks prior to the Annual Meeting. Additional nominations may be made by a nominating letter signed by no fewer than 250 voting members of the Society and a biographical sketch of the nominee, to be received by the Executive Director no later than fourteen weeks prior to the Annual Meeting.

- (4) The Nominating Committee shall certify that all nominees are qualified, willing to serve, and meet the requirements set forth in these Bylaws. Nominees may not be candidates for more than one office.

b. National Directors

- (1) Nomination for the position of National Director for each Region shall be made by the Region's Nominating Committee, which shall ensure that the Region's membership has an opportunity to nominate additional candidates.
- (2) Elections shall be by ballot by a plurality of members of the Region voting. The name and biographical data of the elected National Director shall be submitted by the Region to the Executive Director not later than forty days prior to the Annual Meeting of the Society.

c. Division Directors

- (1) Nominees for Division officers shall be determined by Division operating procedures. Their names and biographical data shall be forwarded to the Executive Director no later than fifteen weeks before the Annual Meeting, so that they may be included in the election ballot. A Division Director and an Assistant Division Director shall be elected by a plurality of members voting. The Assistant Division Director shall normally succeed to the office of Division Director.

d. Chair of the Sustaining Members Council

- (1) Nominations for the position of Chair of the Sustaining Members Council shall be made by the Nominating Committee of the Council. The Council shall ensure that the Council's membership has an opportunity to nominate additional candidates. At the time of nomination all candidates shall be members of the Society.
- (2) Elections shall be by ballot. The Chair and Vice-Chair shall be elected by a plurality of the members of the Council voting. Voting is restricted to members of the Society.
- (3) The name and biographical data for the elected Chair and Vice-Chair shall be submitted to the Executive Director not later than forty days prior to the Annual Meeting of the Society.

e. Election Procedures

- (1) The Executive Director shall be responsible for transmitting to all qualified voting members at least ten weeks before the Annual Meeting the election ballot accompanied by biographical data and clear and complete instructions for the balloting procedure. The ballot shall also contain any proposals requiring a vote by the membership. Ballots may be cast through electronic methods or by mail. In the case of a duplicate ballot, the mail ballot will prevail.
- (2) Ballots cast electronically must be submitted before 9:00 a.m. (local time at the location of the Annual Meeting) of the twenty-first day prior to the Annual Meeting. Active member status is required to vote electronically.
- (3) Ballots cast by mail must be received at Society headquarters before 9:00 a.m. (local time at the location of the Annual Meeting) of the twenty-first day prior to the Annual Meeting. The completed mail ballot shall be unsigned and sealed in an envelope showing on the outside the member's name, written or printed, to determine eligibility to vote.
- (4) Election tellers appointed by the President shall record the ballots cast and submit a report to the President twenty days before the Annual Meeting, so that the President may notify the candidates of the outcome nineteen days prior to the Annual Meeting.
- (5) A tie vote shall be decided by a majority vote of the Board of Directors.

Section 10. Term of Office

- a. Each Elective Officer shall take office during the Annual Meeting of the Society and shall serve until the successor is duly elected and installed at the next Annual Meeting. An Elective Officer may not serve two consecutive terms in the same office except as provided for elsewhere in the Bylaws.
- b. The term of office for National Directors shall be three years commencing with installation at the Annual Meeting of the Society. Approximately one-third of the National Directors shall be elected each year, in accordance with the schedule determined by the Executive Director.
- c. The term of office for Division Directors and Assistant Division Directors shall be two years.
- d. The term of office for the Chair and Vice-Chair of the Sustaining Members Council shall be two years.
- e. Incomplete terms of any Elective Officer may be filled for the balance of the term by the Board of Directors at any regular or special meeting. Incomplete terms of National Directors, Division Directors, Assistant Division Directors and the Sustaining Members Council Chair and Vice Chair shall be filled by the Regions, Divisions, and Sustaining Members Council respectively in accordance with their procedures.

ARTICLE V. REGIONS

Section 1. Definition

Regions shall function as administrative sub-elements of the Society. All Society members shall be members of a Region based on the location of an official mailing address submitted by the member for purposes of receipt of the journal and other Society correspondence. The submitted address shall be related to either their residence or their primary place of employment.

Section 2. Boundaries and Membership

Region boundaries shall be established along State and/or county (or their equivalent) boundary lines. Foreign areas may be allocated to Regions to ensure opportunity for all members to participate in Region activities. No member may have membership in more than one Region. Membership in a Region other than that specified in Section 1 of this Article can be considered when circumstances justify it, contingent upon notification to and approval by the Executive Committee. The Executive Director shall maintain and publish a current file of all approved Region boundaries.

Section 3. Establishing Regions

Modification of existing Region boundaries to establish a new Region or to change the geographical areas of two existing Regions shall require approval of the Board of Directors by a two-thirds vote. A request for a Charter for a new Region shall be signed by at least 100 voting members who reside in the geographical area proposed for the New Region. The Charter request shall include proposed boundary lines, along with written approvals of the Regions whose boundaries would be affected.

Section 4. Dissolution

Regions shall be dissolved and their charters shall be rescinded by a two-thirds vote of the Board of Directors.

Section 5. Operations

Regions shall adopt Bylaws, policies and procedures as necessary to carry out the objectives of the Society in accordance with Society Bylaws and policies. Each Region shall elect Region Officers and a National Director, appoint committees and form and supervise Chapters. Regions shall report to the Executive Director, within three weeks of their elections, the names of all elected officials and appointed committee chairmen. Region elected officials shall be active members of both the Society and the Region of membership as determined by Sections 1 and 2 of this Article. Any subsequent changes shall be promptly reported. Regions shall provide their own postage and stationery and are encouraged to develop their own letterheads incorporating the name and insignia of the Society in a manner authorized by the Executive Director.

Section 6. Financing

Regions may assess dues from members within the Region, and may raise, collect and expend funds for Regional purposes within limitations or policies established by the Society. Regions also shall be eligible to receive financial assistance from the Society. This shall include:

a. Member Rebate

Ten percent of each Region member's annual Society dues may be apportioned to the Region based on the number of voting members in the Region as of the preceding December 31st. Rebates must be requested in accordance with the schedule published each year by the Executive Director; rebate requests which are submitted and/or incomplete on or after September 1 will not be eligible for payment. Eligibility for the Region rebate shall be dependent upon documentation in the annual report that describes the fulfillment of each of the following requirements:

- (1) At least two technical meetings for Region members were held during the preceding calendar year.
- (2) All eligible voting members had voting rights on matters pertaining to the Region.
- (3) Information from Society Headquarters was disseminated to Region members and Society affairs were supported in the Region.
- (4) An active membership campaign was conducted, including operation of a membership committee to vigorously pursue acquisition of new members, to contact Region members in arrears in their dues, and assess reasons for the delinquency of members.
- (5) Satisfaction of all relevant requirements imposed on the Society by the Internal Revenue Service or other government agencies.

b. Rebate of Meeting Proceeds

A portion of the proceeds to the Society from a successful convention, seminar, symposium, workshop or other such Society activity in the Region may be returned to the Region in accordance with Society policies.

Section 7. Functions

Regions shall provide a forum for their members to consider technical and professional matters of Region concern. This may include cooperation with regional entities of related scientific, technical, or professional associations or organizations, or with educational institutions. A Region may establish formal operating relationships with such entities subject to approval of the Board of Directors, but shall not incur any financial obligations in the name of the Society without prior consent of the Society.

Section 8. Support to the Society

a. Regions shall provide support to the Society by:

- (1) Developing regional positions and preparing recommendations relating to Society policies, technical matters, education, legislation and other pertinent matters, and actively participating in the Society planning process. Regions shall not, however, issue resolutions or statements of policy, or act on matters of national importance without specific approval of the Board of Directors;
- (2) Developing concepts for Society technical meetings, workshops and seminars within the Region;
- (3) Proposing, preparing and sponsoring preparation of technical articles and other publications for the Society publications program.

b. The Region National Director shall assure coordination of Region activities with Society operations and policies.

ARTICLE VI. CHAPTERS

Section 1. Definition

Chapters shall be administrative sub-elements of Regions, established as necessary by Regions to improve Society support to its members and to encourage local participation in Society activities. All Chapter members shall be members in good standing of the Society.

Section 2. Establishing Chapters

Regions shall determine their need for establishment of Chapters and shall operate them in accordance with Region Bylaws after a charter for each Chapter is issued by the Society Board of Directors. At least ten members must indicate their intent to participate in an area chapter, and five Student Members and one Member Faculty Advisor must indicate their intent to participate in a student chapter before a charter can be issued. The Region shall send the Executive Director a copy of the petition signed by the required number of members and a copy of the Chapter Bylaws approved by the Region prior to the charter being issued by the Society Board of Directors.

Section 3. Boundaries

Chapters may be a geographical sub-division of Regions, including all Society members in the Chapter area or may be Student Chapters including Student Members and other participating members of the Society at a specific educational institution.

Section 4. Dissolution

Chapters shall be dissolved in accordance with the Region Bylaws and their charters shall be rescinded by a two-thirds vote of the Board of Directors.

The Committee may undertake the preparation of prospect lists and the establishment and conduct of programs for phone and mail solicitation, new member recognition, follow up on member dropouts, and similar efforts to assure participation in the Society by members of the profession. The Committee may establish sub-committees for servicing the different classes of membership. The Committee shall be responsible for providing guidance and assistance to Membership Chair in the Regions.
- b. The Membership Committee shall resolve any questions regarding membership eligibility.

Section 18. Strategic Planning Committee

- a. The Strategic Planning Committee (SPC) shall consist of the members of the Executive Committee.
- b. The SPC shall be responsible for creating, maintaining and revising the Society's Strategic Plan.

Section 19. Professional Conduct Committee

- a. The Professional Conduct Committee (PCC) shall consist of at least three Past Presidents of the Society and two additional members who have served as Officers or Directors of the Society. The members of the Committee shall be appointed by the President with the approval of the Board of Directors for a term of five years, staggered so that a new member is appointed each year.
- b. The PCC shall be the custodian of the Society Code of Professional Ethics and shall be responsible for preparing and recommending standards of professional conduct and the procedures to be followed in professional conduct investigations.
- c. The PCC shall have responsibility for review and investigation of all questions of professional ethics, to include charges against a member of the Society. The Committee shall inform the Board of Directors of its disposition of all cases considered, including its recommendations for Society action when necessary.
- d. The Board of Directors, after review of the report of the PCC concerning a case of Code of Professional Ethics violation, and after review by the legal counsel, shall vote to decide if formal hearings should be held by the Board of Directors. If the vote is negative, the case is closed. If affirmative, the Board of Directors in formal session shall hear all evidence and decide by secret ballot on appropriate action.

Section 20. Publications Committee

- a. The Publications Committee shall consist of not less than three members. The Communications Director of the Society's staff shall be an ex officio member. The Publications Committee shall be responsible for the overview of the Publications Program of the Society, exclusive of the Society's journal, Photogrammetric Engineering & Remote Sensing, in accordance with policies established by the Board of Directors.

- b. The Publications Committee shall prepare and submit, at least semi-annually, reports on the proceedings of the Committee and its recommendations concerning publication policies to the Board of Directors.
- c. The Committee shall develop and oversee implementation of general rules for preparation and presentation of Society publications, exclusive of the Society's journal, Photogrammetric Engineering & Remote Sensing, to insure timely and effective dissemination of information consistent with Society policy.
- d. To ensure uniform application of Society policies, contents of all Society publications, exclusive of the Society's journal, Photogrammetric Engineering & Remote Sensing (PE&RS), shall be approved by the Publications Committee. The Committee shall seek out qualified individuals to assist in determining acceptability of papers or other material to be included in publications. The Committee may choose to allow the editor of a Society publication to establish its contents and to accept or reject items for publication, but shall resolve questions of policy submitted to it by an editor.

Section 21. Journal Policy Committee

- a. The Journal Policy Committee will be responsible for matters dealing with publication of PE&RS and will collaborate on matters of concern with the ASPRS Publications Committee.

The Committee will be co-chaired by the Executive Director and Editor-in-Chief.
- c. Responsibilities of the Committee will include editorial and policy matters related to the publication of PE&RS. The Committee also will serve as a review board for any complaints lodged by authors about the handling of manuscripts and, if necessary, act as the final arbiter regarding the acceptability of papers for publication.
- d. The Committee shall prepare and submit, at least semi-annually, reports on the proceedings of the Committee and its recommendations concerning publication policies to the Board of Directors.
- e. The Committee shall develop and oversee implementation of general rules for preparation and presentation of PE&RS to insure timely and effective dissemination of information consistent with Society policy.

Section 22. Data Preservation and Archiving Committee

The Data Preservation and Archiving Committee shall consist of the Committee Chair and at least four other members of the Society. The three major segments of the Society membership government, private and academic shall be reflected in the composition of the Committee. These members shall be appointed upon recommendation of the Committee Chair and concurrence of the ASPRS President. The Committee Chair shall be appointed by the ASPRS President. The ASPRS President and the Executive Director, or designee, shall serve as ex officio members.

Section 23. Division Directors Committee

- a. The Division Directors Committee shall consist of the Directors, Assistant Directors, and Past Directors of each of the Divisions of the Society: Geographic Information Systems Division, Photogrammetric Applications Division, Primary Data Acquisition Division, Professional Practice Division and Remote Sensing Applications Division. Members shall be appointed for the terms of their respective elective offices.
- b. The Division Directors Committee shall be responsible for communication of and provide a forum for discussion and resolution of issues of concern to all Divisions and the Society.
- c. The Division Directors Committee cannot expend funds, make other commitments, or speak for the Society, unless specifically approved by the ASPRS Executive Committee or Board of Directors.

Section 24. Electronic Communications Committee

The Electronic Communications Committee shall consist of not less than three members. The Committee shall work with Society Staff to support the upgrade of the Society's website and recommend action for keeping electronic communications for the Society current.

Section 25. Memorial Address Committee

The Memorial Address Committee shall consist of a Chairperson, appointed by the President, and at least two other members, and the Executive Director. The Executive Director will serve as staff liaison to the Committee. The Committee shall arrange for speakers to present the Memorial Addresses during the Annual Convention. The Committee Chair shall serve as Master of Ceremonies at the Memorial Addresses.

Section 26. Standards Committee

The Standards Committee shall consist of a Chairperson, Vice-Chairperson and at least one member from each ASPRS Division. Other Standing Committees are invited to have membership on the Standards Committee. The Standards Committee shall report to the ASPRS Board of Directors and shall be responsible for policy development, and strategic and technical management, of the ASPRS Standards Program. The Standards Committee shall serve as the Society's primary representative on standards matters and shall facilitate and coordinate standards activities, for both internal and external standards development and review, for the Society. The Standards Program shall include Standards, Guidelines and Best Practices."

Section 27. Committee Expenses

Operating expenses for committees shall be included in the Society budget process. Committee chairs shall provide estimates and reports of expenses as required by the Executive Director.

ARTICLE X. FINANCES

Section 1. Membership Dues and Fees

Membership dues and other fees shall be determined annually by the Board of Directors after considering the recommendations of the Executive Director. New memberships shall begin in the month dues are received and are subject to renewal 12 months later, i.e., the anniversary date. Dues shall be collected from all classes of membership except Honorary and Emeritus members.

Section 2. Fees for Publications

The Executive Director shall determine fees for annual subscription to the Society's official journal by non-member individuals and institutions, as well as prices and conditions for the sale of other Society publications.

Section 3. Budget

The Executive Director shall prepare an annual budget proposal for the Society showing projected receipts and expenditures for the ensuing fiscal year with recommendation for dues and fees structure, supported with records of receipt and expenditure data for the current and the previous fiscal year and with financial forecast data for a five-year period. The budget shall be submitted for Board of Directors' approval at its last meeting prior to the beginning of the fiscal year, after review by the Executive Committee.

ARTICLE XI. ADMINISTRATION

ARTICLE XVI. DISSOLUTION

Section 1. Distribution of Assets to Other Organizations

In the event of dissolution of the Society, any assets remaining shall be distributed to one or more regularly organized and qualified educational or scientific non-profit organizations to be selected by the Board of Directors and approved by the membership.

Section 2. Assets in Formation or New Organizations

In the event of dissolution of the Society with intent to form two or more similarly qualified new organizations, and if approved by the Board of Directors and the membership, any assets remaining after payment of all debts and liabilities shall be distributed to the new organizations when formed, in amounts proportional to the distribution of Society members into the new organizations.

ARTICLE XVII. AMENDMENTS

Section 1. Petition for Amendment

Amendment to these Bylaws may be proposed in writing to the Executive Director by petition of at least five members of the Board of Directors or at least fifty members who are qualified to vote.

Section 2. Amendment Procedure

Proposed amendments shall be considered at the next regular meeting of the Board of Directors if received by the Executive Director at least sixty days prior to that meeting. Copies of the proposed amendment shall be received by Board members at least thirty days prior to the meeting of the Board at which the amendment will be considered. The membership shall be advised of proposed amendments by notice in the Society journal at least thirty days prior to that meeting so that members' comments may be considered by the Board.

Section 3. Adoption

Amendments to these Bylaws shall be adopted by a two-thirds vote of the members of the Board of Directors present and voting.
